MANSFIELD CHAMBER WOMEN'S DIVISION BRINGS FALL FASHION FOR A GOOD CAUSE

MANSFIELD, TX (JULY 30, 2010) – The 34th Annual Mansfield Style Show “Fall Flavors” will be held on Saturday, August 28, 2010 from 9:30 am - noon at Walnut Creek Country Club in Mansfield, TX. The show will be presented by the Women’s Division of the Mansfield Area Chamber of Commerce and Ameriprise Financial, Keever & Associates and will benefit the Mansfield Independent School District Education Foundations as well as other local charities. Tickets are $45 each/ $50 at the door.

This year’s show will feature local boutiques including Classy Concepts Bridal Boutique, Lady Bugs Children’s Boutique, Teesie’s Attic and CAbi. Barbizon Models of Dallas as well as local Mansfield residents will model the fashions. The emcee for this year’s event will be Macie Jepson, former news anchor for WFAA, Channel 8. In addition to an amazing fashion show, the event will include a room full of booths for shopping, a brunch, raffle items and local entertainment provided by the Mansfield High School Show Choir, Worley Middle School Cheerleaders and local singing sensation Austin Gallup.

For the first time the Mansfield Style Show will give an award to a local woman for Outstanding Community Service. The recipient will be a local woman who has given her time and energy to local organizations and charities throughout the years.

The money raised from the Mansfield Style Show will go directly back in to the Mansfield community. Some of this year’s beneficiaries include:

- MISD EDUCATION FOUNDATION
- MISD Scholarship Program
- Tarrant County Community College Scholarship
- Mansfield Police Department
- Mansfield Fire Department
- Mansfield Cares
- City of Mansfield
- Keep Mansfield Beautiful
- Girls Inc.
- Safe Haven
- Caring Place
- City of Mansfield Animal Shelter
- Special Olympics
- Wesley Mission Center
- Habitat for Humanity
- Common Ground Network "Feed the Kids"
- Life Point-Autistic Young Adults
- All Star Equestrian
- Mansfield Community Theater
